

15 TWO-PART INVENTIONS

for Two Flutes*

Edited by JOHN WUMMER

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH
(1685-1750)

FLUTE I

Allegro. (♩ = 120.)

Note:

Inverted mordent

Mordent

Turn on a dotted note

Turn beginning on note above (see No.3)

1. The sign is used when the ending is not written out as follows:

2. Every trill over a dotted note stops on the dot when the ending is not written out and the note following the dot keeps its natural value.

3. The trill according to Bach always begins on the note above and ends as follows:

*Originally for Keyboard.